

E Pluribus Unum.
The Latin phrase "E Pluribus Unum," means "From Many, One." It is the motto of the United States, as being one nation, though composed of many states. The expression is found originally in a Latin poem entitled "Moretum," supposed to have been written by the poet Virgil.

Depth of Ignorance.
"How ignorant that woman is," said Mrs. Gaussip to her caller. "She and I went to the Zoo the other day, and I thought I would laugh outright when she called the giraffe a camel." The joke of it was the animal wasn't a giraffe at all, it was a camouille."

Immense Chestnut Tree.
The largest Spanish chestnut tree in the world grows in a forest on the slopes of Mount Etna. It is said that a hundred soldiers and their horses once found shelter beneath it.

Daily Thought.
He that will not reason is a bigot; he that cannot reason is a fool, and he that dares not reason is a slave.—Sir W. Drummond.

Selfish.
According to a modern writer, every wife needs her share of diversion. And a few wives seem determined to get all of it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Pain for Years

"I suffered for years with a pain in my left side and dragging feelings," says Mrs. Sarah Boggs, of Winnipeg, Mo., "and was almost unable to stand on my feet. I couldn't sleep nights, and had smothering spells. Had a pain in my head and back, and I took medicines till I got out of heart. I commenced using Cardui, and I am so much better. Can do my house-work and washing now, and walk two miles easily."

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Card-u-i is a medicine for women, made from pure, vegetable ingredients. It has been found of great value as a tonic for women of all ages, and is particularly effective in relieving the aches and pains from which so many women suffer. If you are weak, run-down or nervous, don't get discouraged. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. With a record of over 50 years of success, isn't it reasonable to suppose Cardui will help you, too? Give it a trial.

Has Helped Thousands.
